

Dear Amira, Thank You!

INSTRUCTIONS

Teacher Preparation:

- Select the letter template that best fits your students' needs.
- Before printing, fill in your grade, school, district, and state either by typing directly into the PDF or handwriting it and making photocopies.

Fun Tip: Print Amira's letter on the next page, seal it in an envelope, and surprise your class by opening it together to kick off the project!

Introducing the Project:

- Explain that students will be writing letters to Amira to share what they're thankful for.
- Read Amira's letter aloud and brainstorm ideas as a class.
- Encourage students to think about what they're grateful for related to learning with Amira, their teachers, and reading.

Fun Tip: Scan the code at the bottom of Amira's letter or click here to hear Amira read the letter out loud!

Student Work Time:

- Encourage students to write neatly and thoughtfully about what they're thankful for.
- In the extra space, ask them to draw a picture of themselves with Amira.

Scan & Submit Letters:

- Scan and compile the letters into one PDF file. Include your school name and district in the file name for easy identification.
- Follow the directions below to submit.

Dear Students,

The holiday season is here, and it's the perfect time to think about all the things we're grateful for. I've loved reading with you and watching you grow as readers this year, and I'm so thankful to be part of your learning journey.

For this project, I'd like you to write me a letter to share what you are thankful for. You might write about something you've learned with me, a story you've enjoyed reading, or how your teacher has helped you. I'd love to know what makes learning and reading special for you.

When you finish your letter, draw a picture of you and me together in the space below. I can't wait to see your creativity and read your wonderful words!

With gratitude,

Amira

Queridos estudiantes,

¡La temporada de fiestas ya está aquí! Es el momento perfecto para pensar en todas las cosas por las que estamos agradecidos. Me ha encantado leer con ustedes y ver cómo crecen como lectores este año. Estoy muy agradecida de ser parte de su camino de aprendizaje.

Para este proyecto, me gustaría que me escriban una carta para contarme por qué están agradecidos. Pueden escribir sobre algo que aprendieron conmigo, una historia que disfrutaron leer o cómo su maestra o maestro los ha ayudado. Me encantaría saber qué hace que aprender y leer sea algo especial para ustedes.

Cuando terminen su carta, dibujen una imagen de ustedes y de mí juntos en el espacio de abajo. ¡Tengo muchas ganas de ver su creatividad y leer sus lindas palabras!

Con gratitud,

Amira
